Dear Ms. Hall and Ms. Bass,

In a prior communication you informed me that I could not obtain records in a pending case with regard to 406 N. Bush St., Unit D, Anaheim California. Attached please find a signed authorization from my client, _____, who is a tenant at 406 N. Bush Street, Unit D, Anaheim, California 92805. This now allows you to release all documents regarding Unit D. Please, when can I expect the records? Thank you.

Respectfully, Deborah M. Vasquez, Esq.

Hello Jennifer,

I want to point out that my first request was submitted on June 18, 2019, 7 days after the city inspected Unit D on June 11th and 7 days after I believe a Notice of Violation was issued to the owner. However, the records produced by the City on July 12th did not include any records related to the June 11th inspection. Thank you for ensuring that all records are produced to me WITHOUT redacting ownership information which is public record.

Also, when the records that were produced in response to my first request be reproduced without redactions? Thank you.

Respectfully, Deborah M. Vasquez, Esq.
