Subject: RE: Follow up re: City adoption of UBC Building Code Chapter 25 for plywood sub floor

Good morning Jennifer,

I have been trying to find the following information on line, to no avail. Is City Ordinance information available on line? I'm working on a tree maintenance/view obstruction dispute between 2 sub associations in Anaheim Hills. In an effort to comply with City requirements, we are gathering information from applicable codes and ordinances.

Title 17.06.131 talks about the following:

.030 Recommended slope trees are outlined in Table I. Recommended slope shrubs are outlined in Table II. Recommended ground covers are outlined in Table III. Recommended procedures for designing slopes are outlined in Table IV. (Ord. 3411 § 2 (part); April 1, 1975.)

Can you help me obtain a copy of Ordinance 3411 shown above? I'm specifically looking for Tables I-IV to address recommended planting material.

Please advise.

Thank you,

Amanda Donofrio

Ms. Donofrio,

Please find attached ORD-3654 by which the Anaheim City Council adopted the 1976 Edition of the Uniform Building Code. The 1973 and 1979 versions were also adopted by Ordinance (ORD-3336 and ORD-4245). Ordinance can be found online at www.anaheim.net/records. Click "Browse Clerk's Folders" then Ordinances.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional assistance.

Sincerely,

Jennifer L. Hall

Hi Jennifer,

Sorry for delay in sending this email but I got so busy with work...lol

I did send my request to the wrong email address in June.
Please see below and confirm that you received this email.

Thank you,

Amanda Donofrio

Good morning Jennifer,

As a follow up to our conversation last week, I have attached a copy of 2 pages of the 1976 Edition of Uniform Building Code, Chapter 25, inclusive of Table 25-Q and 25-R.1.
You have the complete set of pages for Chapter 25 at your office.

I reviewed the 1973, 1976 and 1979 Editions. I need to confirm if the City of Anaheim adopted all or portions of Chapter 25 as it pertains to plywood sub floors, including the tables listed above.
Please advise how I should proceed to obtain copies of the adopted plywood sub floor sections.

Thank you,

Amanda Donofrio
