

ANAHEIM POLICE DEPARTMENT

CHIEF JORGE CISNEROS

DEPARTMENT UPDATE

WHO WE ARE

As Chief of Police, I understand effective policing requires the trust and partnership of the community we serve and transparency plays a critical role in maintaining that relationship.

HOW WE PERFORM

Few departments are as self-critical or invite as much community dialogue as Anaheim Police Department

- Police Review Board (PRB)
- Office of Independent Review (OIR)
- Major Incident Review Team (MIRT)
- Chief's Advisory Board (CAB)
- PACE
- Cops4Kids Board
- Data Release Unit to address AB748 and SB1421
- Produce Critical Incident Community Briefing Videos

HOW WE PERFORM

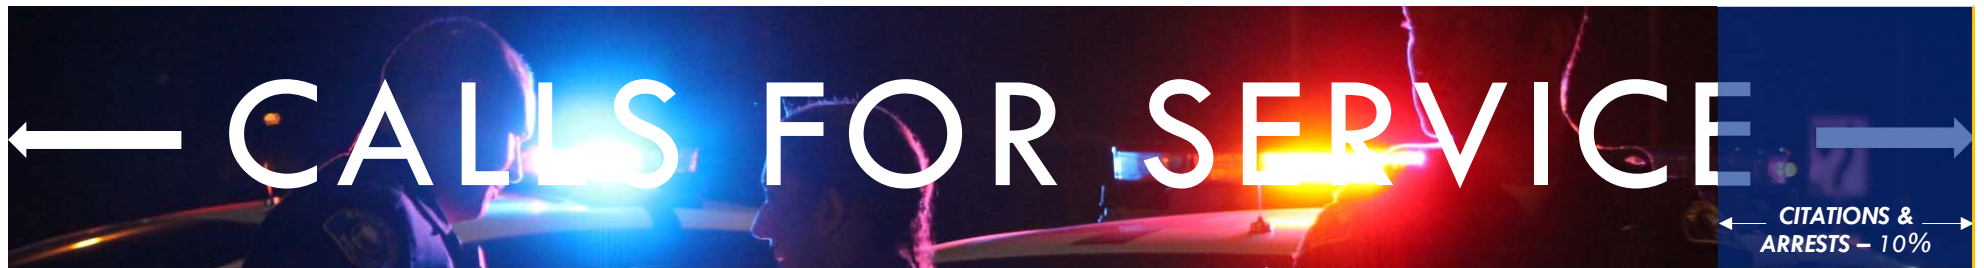

- First agency in Orange County to implement Body Worn Cameras
- UOF incidents are reported, investigated, tracked and audited
- Advance Officer training using state of the art Force Options Simulator (Virtra)
- The use of Lexipol policies, which is a leader in content, policy and training platform for public safety

ANAHEIM POLICE DEPARTMENT FY2020/21 BUDGET

WHERE WE WOULD LIKE TO GO

- Invest in becoming a leader and regional hub in continuous officer training, which is based on community partnerships. This training will be an innovative holistic approach that focuses on the Mind, Body and Heart of public safety personnel

- Obtain National Accreditation through CALEA

- Develop and implement strategies to shift Homelessness, Mental Health issues and Drug Abuse calls away from law enforcement and towards social services
