

Coronavirus Business Relief

- What: temporary easing of city rules for businesses to operate outdoors, display signs and sell alcohol to-go during the coronavirus crisis
- How: through executive orders by Anaheim's city manager under the city's emergency declaration to address coronavirus
- What it does: relieves most businesses of special event permits, requirements and restrictions to operate outdoors, display signs and sell alcohol to-go
- Who: restaurants, stores, hair salons and barbers, nail salons and select other personal services, offices, professional services and other businesses and organizations
- Why: to keep businesses operating and providing service to the community while following California public health directives

OPERATING OUTDOORS

- What: allows businesses to operate outdoors, where allowed by California
- What's changed: special event permits previously required for outdoor activities are no longer required in most cases; fee waived where a permit is still required
- Effective: through Jan. 31, 2021, following an extension from Sept. 15, 2020
- Examples of what's allowed:
 - Outdoor dining
 - Retail displays, curbside, drive-up services
 - Outdoor hair, nails and other personal services as allowed by California
 - Customer check-in, appointments
 - Drop off, pickup

OPERATING OUTDOORS

- Rules and requirements:

- Approval of property owner or management company
- Unobstructed views for those entering and exiting
- Unobstructed vehicle passage
- Unobstructed ADA parking, access and pathways
- No noise disturbances
- Outdoor dining with alcohol service still requires special event permit
- No music, other performances or dancing allowed with outdoor dining
- No extended operation beyond regular hours
- Safety barriers between outdoor customers and vehicles
- No operation on public sidewalks and other rights of way, unless authorized by city of Anaheim
- Compliance with California Department of Public Health guidelines
- Tents and canopies up to 400 square feet, or 20 foot by 20 foot, allowed
- Larger outdoor structures, equipment, tents and canopies, lighting, fencing and generators require city permits

- Special event permit not required for outdoor:

- Hair and nail salons, barbershops
- Outdoor dining without alcohol service
- Outdoor retail displays, curbside pickup, drive-up service
- Outdoor operations for offices

- Special event permit still required for outdoor:

- Outdoor dining with alcohol service
- Outdoor dining at breweries and bars with onsite kitchens that still are allowed to operate under California rules

OUTDOOR SIGNS

- What: signs, flags, banners, fixed balloons for business promotion
- What's changed: special event permit waived for temporary signs
- Effective: through Jan. 19, 2021, following an extension from Sept. 14, 2020
- What's allowed: signs informing public of open businesses, available services, hours, new operating procedures or related information
- Types of signs, no permit required:
 - Window signs
 - Flags
 - Balloons
 - A-frames
 - Ground-mounted feather banners
 - Stationary signs that don't move, flash, inflate or pose a safety hazard
- Where signs aren't allowed:
 - Sidewalks, other public rights of way
 - Building roofs
 - Obstructing pedestrian, cyclist or driver views entering or exiting a property

ALCOHOL TO-GO

- What: sale of alcohol with to-go food by restaurants and delicatessens, and without food by breweries and other makers of sealed, specialty beverages
- What's changed: relaxing of state and city restrictions for to-go wine, beer, spirits and sealed mixed drinks with food orders by restaurants and delis that are licensed to sell alcohol onsite
- Issued: March 19, 2020, by California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; April 1, 2020, city of Anaheim, extended May 4, 2020
- Effective: until further notice
- Hours of sales: 6 a.m. to 2 a.m.