The City of Anaheim and venues across the city are doing their part to support California's efforts to stem the spread of coronavirus.

We are canceling this activity through April 30. No decisions have been made yet on events and programming in May. They are subject to change with California's current stay-at-home order, which is until further notice. We will keep you updated as decisions are made.

We are providing timely citywide updates on coronavirus at Anaheim.net/coronavirus. We encourage you to follow the site as well as the City of Anaheim on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for updates. Thank you in advance for your understanding, cooperation and for doing your part to address coronavirus.
